ALTHORP[®]

L I V I N G H I S T O R Y[™]

The histories of the Spencer Family's Heritage and Althorp are so tightly entwined that they would be impossible to unravel and separate. These Spencer ancestors were able to indulge their tastes – to commission art, furniture, and all the finer things in life. You can see the Spencer touch in every corner of Althorp – this historic house that my family has called “home” for over 500 years, and which for the past decade, has been given unprecedented care and attention.

Stephen Church is a Master Cabinetmaker who designs as well as makes fine furniture following the tradition of English 18th century cabinetmakers from Adam and Chippendale to Hepplewhite and Sheraton. Today those traditions are maintained with pride by a selected team of craftsmen working at Theodore Alexander.

Stephen acquired a thorough practical knowledge of traditional cabinet making techniques and materials from an early age and has broadened his horizons by working for many years with some of the world's leading furniture specialists.

His experienced eye and attention to detail bring together the finest woods and exotic veneers which are finished by hand to Stephen's exacting standards, thus replicating the aged color and patina of the finest pieces created by his famous predecessors.
